

OBJECTIVE

ACTIVITIES

Identify and provide rehabilitation services to all people with disabilities who could benefit from any form of rehabilitation

- Raising Awareness
- House to house surveys
- Counselling
- Training and supervision of community volunteers
- Networking with medical, educational, vocational and social authorities

Strive for community participation and partnership in rehabilitation of people with disabilities

- Awareness programmes
- Group formation
- Skills training to provide the needs of people with disabilities (PWDs)
- Training and supervising of community volunteers

Be a strong driving force for the cause of PWDs at regional, provincial and national levels

- Facilitate contacts between PWDs and relevant authorities
- Establish community rehabilitation committees for CBR
- Network with relevant authorities

Provide excellent medical and paramedical services

- Audiological services
- Speech therapy and physiotherapy
- Rehabilitation clinics in the field areas
- Advice on and provision of orthopaedic appliances and mobility aides
- Counselling
- Referrals

Provide educational facilities for people with disabilities according to their abilities and adapted to their disabilities

- Early intervention
- Cognitive programmes
- Special education including skills training
- Group classes with parent involvement
- Home based vocational activities
- Inclusive education

Provide facilities which will lead to the economical stability of people with disabilities

- Income improvement activities, and facilitation of home-based income generating activities
- Maintain a databank
- Placement in vocational training centres
- Job placements and skills training
- Group formation
- Saving schemes
- Advice on and facilitation of marketing systems